

The garden walkway from Race Street to the Library's Green Street entrance is on the site of the historic Cherry Alley. Designated by a decorative arch at its east end, the plaza features an attractive walkway paved with personalized bricks and artworks commissioned by The Urbana Free Library Foundation.

For a gift of only $150, you can personalize a Cherry Alley paver and have your name join those of your friends, neighbors, and other supporters of The Urbana Free Library.

A personalized paver makes a unique gift for special occasions. Cherry Alley pavers are the perfect way to make your business, family, friends, and loved one—even pets—a permanent part of the Library.
